What is the course about?

This course is designed to follow on from the Introduction to Novel Writing and the Next Steps in Novel Writing. The classes cover a range of topics likely to be useful to a writer in the middle and towards the end of a large writing project, such as constructing the end of a novel and editing your work

Why should I choose the course?

If you are writing a novel but are struggling to finish it due to lack of motivation or being unsure how to conclude it, this course will give you help and guidance to get your work finished. There will be support from the tutor and fellow students to help you write the ending your novel needs.

What will I learn?

The course covers: Structuring the Third Act, Writing the Ending your Novel Deserves, editing your Work, Publishing and Novel Showcase (in which you will celebrate your achievements with your fellow students)

You will be informally assessed by the tutor, and you will also self-assess your weekly progress using an individual learning plan.

What will the course lead on to?

This course will enable you to enhance your literacy and communication skills, thereby potentially increasing your employability and future careers prospects.

What support is available?

We have a team of staff dedicated to providing learning support if required, as well as a Welfare Team that is on hand to offer guidance, support and help when needed. Additionally, eligible students can access a wide range of finance and funding support to help them during their time at college.
