What is the course about?

Get ready to embrace the holiday season with this short course for adults, where you'll learn all the basic floristry techniques using a stunning variety of seasonal Christmas foliage!

Each week, you'll work with fresh flowers and greenery to create breathtaking floral arrangements, including a festive Christmas wreath and an elegant long table decoration; perfect for adding a touch of charm to your home.

Why should I choose the course?

If you've been eager to explore floristry and like the idea of creating beautiful, seasonal arrangements to take home each week, this course is the perfect opportunity for you!

Whether you're a complete beginner or someone who has already explored our Basics and Design & Concepts floristry courses, this short, exciting course is the perfect way to bring your festive floral visions to life. Let your creativity bloom as you learn new techniques and make beautiful arrangements that will brighten up your Christmas celebrations!

What will I learn?

Each week, you'll develop essential floristry skills using seasonal flowers, including:

- Creating stunning Christmas-themed floral designs, experimenting with various mediums and containers to form different shapes, including flat-backed Christmas sheaths.
- Identifying and applying the three Principles of Floristry in your Christmas designs, while gaining a deeper understanding of the Elements of floral design.

Throughout the course, you'll receive informal feedback from your tutor, plus the opportunity to track your progress each week with a personalised learning plan. By the end, you'll have the confidence to create festive floral arrangements that are sure to impress!

What will the course lead on to?

After completing this course, you may wish to continue with other short floristry courses throughout the year, such as Design & Concepts and themed courses like Wedding, Spring, and Summer floristry. These courses will help you expand your skills and knowledge and may lead to accredited qualifications.
