What is the course about?

This short course focuses on supporting early reading and communication skills. Designed for parents and carers of children under 5, the session explores simple, practical ways to encourage emergent literacy through everyday activities.

Taught at Winsford Adult College, this course forms part of a wider under 5s parent programme, delivered in a supportive and non-judgemental environment to help build confidence and strengthen parenting skills.

Why should I choose the course?

This course is ideal for parents and carers who want to feel confident and supported in helping their child thrive.

Through practical, easy-to-use strategies, you'll build the skills and confidence needed to support your child's development at home.

What will I learn?

Throughout these supportive sessions, you will learn:

- How to support your child through storytelling
- Ways to help develop and extend vocabulary
- Approaches to encourage language development.

Sessions are delivered in a relaxed, supportive environment with practical demonstrations and opportunities to ask questions.

What will the course lead on to?

This course supports parents and carers in building confidence to continue developing their child's communication at home.

By focusing on storytelling, talking and listening, and language development, it helps promote improved early literacy skills, giving children a stronger foundation for early reading and communication as they grow.
