

What is the course about?

The goal of the ESOL Conversation for Confidence course is to develop fluency, build vocabulary, and gain confidence to use English in real-life situations. The lessons will focus on practical communication, active listening, and speaking without fear of making mistakes.

Why should I choose the course?

Choosing this course will help you to:

Build your speaking fluency: Regular conversation practice will help you to gain confidence when speaking and improve your pronunciation.

Speak to other people: As you succeed in expressing yourself, you will gain the confidence to participate in conversations in your daily life.

What will I learn?

On the ESOL Conversation for Confidence course, you will:

Practice speaking:

- You will speak in a safe, friendly class.

Improve listening:

- You will listen to real conversations.
- You will learn to understand different people.

You will learn new English words for everyday life:

- Shopping
- Travel
- Work
- Health

You will practise conversations for:

- Your everyday life
- Your community.

What will the course lead on to?

Completing this course will enable progression on to further conversational ESOL courses at the college. Please ask our friendly Learner Services Team about this when you enrol.
