What is the course about?

This part-time introductory art and design course invites you to explore a variety of materials and methods across multiple creative disciplines. You'll develop skills in drawing, painting, mixed media, and printing through hands-on experimentation.

Why should I choose the course?

If you're passionate about art and design and want to improve your skills with expert guidance, this course is ideal. Our well-established art department features experienced tutors who provide supportive teaching in a friendly, welcoming environment. Whether you're new to the subject or looking to deepen your knowledge, you'll find a place here.

What will I learn?

You will be introduced to a wide range of materials, processes, and techniques including drawing, painting, mixed media, and printing. You will produce a series of artworks to take away with you each session.

What will the course lead on to?

On completion of this course, you may be interested in progressing onto our Level 1 Creative Craft Art and Design course, which is the perfect follow on from this short course.

Why should I choose to study the course at Warrington & Vale Royal College?

We always put learning at the centre of all we do. We have dedicated and passionate teaching staff who are practicing artists in their own right. All teaching staff bring a wealth of both industry and educational experience to the department, ensuring that you will have an excellent learning experience with us. We have fully equipped and spacious studios and a dedicated art technician to further support you during your time with us.

What are the entry requirements?

There are no entry requirements besides a genuine interest in art and design.
