What is the course about?

This course covers the fundamentals of audio production, equipping you with the essential techniques to create and enhance audio for a variety of purposes.

It's suitable for anyone looking to gain greater control over their audio projects and is especially ideal for podcasters and others eager to improve the quality and creativity of their sound.

Why should I choose the course?

If you want to develop practical skills in audio production and gain confidence in creating and improving sound, this course is the perfect starting point. It offers hands-on learning tailored to meet the needs of beginners and those looking to enhance podcasting or other audio projects with professional techniques.

What will I learn?

This course will demonstrate the potential for creating and enhancing audio.

You will learn:
• An introduction to Audacity and basic editing
• How to clean audio and apply effects
• Multi-track editing and layering
• Advanced effects and automation
• How to finalise projects and export your work

The tutor will provide informal assessments, and you will also self-assess your progress weekly.

What will the course lead on to?

On completion of this course, you could progress to one of our many other short courses.

We offer a wide variety of part-time adult courses designed to help you upskill, secure a promotion, prepare for university, or simply meet new people. There's something for everyone.
