What is the course about?

This qualification is suitable for all students, including those in or seeking employment. It is also ideal if you need to develop your awareness of issues surrounding equality and diversity, for example as part of an induction programme or personal development.

Why should I choose the course?

Britain is a culturally diverse nation that respects and values the differences in people. Companies are legally required to follow a set of practices to tackle discrimination and ensure equality for their employees. If you want to learn about equality and diversity in different contexts, this course will give you a great understanding of the different issues affecting equality and diversity in society today. You will gain an insight into the wide-ranging legislation that is required to create a workplace centred on fairness, dignity, and respect.

What will I learn?

During this course you will cover the following modules:

- Learning the importance of equality and diversity within different contexts
- Gaining an understanding of the different issues affecting equality and diversity in today's society.

What will the course lead on to?

Completing this course will equip you with valuable knowledge that can be applied to the workplace and everyday life. If you wish to explore more course options, you can view all our adult courses on our website. For more information, contact our Learner Services Team on 01925 494400 or learner.services@wvr.ac.uk.

What support is available?
