

LEVEL 2 CERTIFICATE PRINCIPLES OF END OF LIFE CARE

Subject Area
Student Type
Study Mode

Health & Social Care
Adults
Distance Learning

What is the course about?

Throughout this course you will learn how to support and manage pain and discomfort, as well as gain insight into the impact of dementia on end-of-life care. You'll also develop the compassionate skills needed for supporting family and friends with the loss and grief process.

Why should I choose the course?

Britain has an ageing population - the number of people aged over 64 is expected to grow to 15 million by 2040. This means more people will live with serious chronic illnesses and need end-of-life care. This course will give you the knowledge you need to perform your role as a care worker for people approaching the end of their lives.

What will I learn?

You will cover a range of modules involving end-of-life care, including:

- Knowledge and understanding of end-of-life care
- The support needed to manage pain and discomfort
- How dementia impacts on end-of-life care
- The role of the care worker at time of death
- The loss and grief process.

What will the course lead on to?

If you are already employed within this sector or hope to be in the future, this course will boost your skills and make a valuable addition to your CV. If you wish to study further, we have a range of relevant qualifications across this subject area, which can be viewed on our website. For more information, contact our Learner Services Team on 01925 494400 or learner.services@wvr.ac.uk.

What support is available?
