What is the course about?

'Serve up Success' is a unique and engaging course specifically designed for unemployed adults seeking to increase their confidence, enhance their skill set, and improve their employability.

Why should I choose the course?

This course is set in the Novel Bite Café based in Winsford Library and provides a comfortable, friendly and practical setting for you to learn and grow whilst fostering a sense of community. The course provides you with the opportunity to experience and be reintroduced to the world of work gaining relevant and up to date references from a reliable and recognised source. If you want to give yourself a confidence boost, maybe get out of a rut, learn new skills and meet new people then this is the course for you!

What will I learn?

The course aims to:

- Build confidence – enhance self-esteem, communication skills and self-assurance through interactive activities and supportive group work.
- Develop workplace skills – acquire practical skills and knowledge necessary for success in various café related/food industry roles such as customer service, food preparation and team collaboration and a wide variety of job roles across a range of sectors outside of the food industry.
- Expand employability – gain transferrable skills, including problem solving, time management and multi-tasking that can be applied to a range of industries and employment opportunities.
- Promote personal growth – encourage personal development, confidence, resilience and adaptability to effectively navigate career challenges and changes.
- Foster networking and connections – facilitate networking opportunities with customers, local businesses and explore potential job prospects.

What will the course lead on to?

'Serve up Success' may lead to accredited courses and/or employment.
